This year's holiday donation is to 'Fleet of Angels' an amazing 501 (c)3 organization that helps horses not only ALL over the Unites States but, they are also helping horses in Ukraine. They provide a variety of things besides emergency hay like medical care and even life saving supplies and services. Did you know that 100% of any donation goes to assist horses in crisis! Wow! Did you know, they were the first recipients of the ASPCA Equine Welfare Award in 2017? Yeah, that is awesome. If you get a chance, check out their website.
